to financial information, not be self-employed or employed by friends or relatives, obtain approval for all employment, not work for cash, provide copies of pay stubs to his probation officer, and not possess identification documents in any but his true name.

On January 19, 2006, defendant's probation officer reported that defendant tested positive for cocaine. He was reprimanded, placed in a structured testing program, and referred for professional assessment and counseling. (Dkt. 426).

In an application dated February 10, 2006 (Dkt 439), U.S. Probation Officer Steven M. McNickle alleged the following violation of the conditions of probation:

1. Failing to report to the community corrections center on February 7, 2006 as instructed, in violation of special condition 4.

In an application dated May 22, 2006 (Dkt 462), U.S. Probation Officer Brian K. Facklam alleged the following violations of the conditions of probation:

- 2. Committing the new law violations of residential burglary, attempted car theft, and possession of stolen property, all during the month of May 2006, in violation of the general condition that he not commit another federal, state or local crime.
- 3. Failing to notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested by law enforcement on May 9, 2006.
- 4. Using methamphetamine on or about May 9, 2006, in violation of standard condition 7.

Defendant was advised in full as to those charges and as to his constitutional rights.

Defendant admitted the alleged violations and waived any evidentiary hearing as to whether they occurred.
